4 the sake of clarityn...

The last Hype Williams recordings were for One Nation (Hippos in Tanks, 2011). After this, Dean Blunt and Inga Copeland carried on recording through 2012 under their own names (while continuing to use the HW name to fulfil existing live commitments).

They are both no longer involved, and any Hype Williams releases you've since heard are FAKE. Bare Paigons. Like Cappadonna making his own Wu.

We been gone for a minute, but now we're back with the jump off. We can't get jiggy with no hundreds and thousands or nuthin like that, we gotta get back in that M game. Wanna own the block b4 the ball drops.
